

Let the War Begin!

"War of 1812 Celebrations"

NEWS RELEASE

Cobourg, ON (September 1, 2010) - Ontario Festivals Visited is pleased to announce the exciting new addition to its website, the War of 1812 Celebrations sub-domain. This comprehensive new section contains a number of informative components and is a tribute to the War of 1812, its 200th Anniversary Celebrations and to the thousands of men and women who will and are organizing these Celebrations! Even though the Celebrations don't officially start until 2012, hundred's of hours have already been spent planning the War of 1812 Bicentennial Celebrations. Over the next several years (until at least 2015), we plan on bringing you, the latest War of 1812 celebration news - "Celebration Headline News", articles about War of 1812 events we have visited, now and in the future - "Celebration Events Visited", weekly articles about the War of 1812, past, present and future - "Celebration Notes", a quarterly newsletter with articles about War of 1812 events, news, organizers and participants - "Celebrations Newsletter" and an events calendar listing upcoming events with links to each event's website - "Celebration Events Calendar". There will also be an "Celebration Event Search Engine" available later this year.

We hope that all "War of 1812 enthusiasts" will enjoy our new "addition" and will participate in it by submitting ideas, photos and articles to us. Judi and I look forward to the War of 1812 (Celebrations) beginning, see you there!
